

Semester 2 Reassessment Break Schedule June 2025

The reassessment break's modified schedule starts on June 17th. During this time, the course schedule will shift to a modified day one schedule (see chart below). For students that are failing a class but are still able to get a passing grade, they are expected to attend that class until they have caught up. Once they have caught up and have a passing grade, they are no longer required to attend the class.

Students that would like to reassess a test or assignment, which will have a significant impact on their final grade and falls in the conditions of the course's outline reassessment process, can arrange that with their teacher during these six days. If students are passing their courses and do not require reassessment they are not expected to be in the school. There are no scheduled blocks after June 23rd, however June 24th reassessments are by appointment with the teacher. After this date, only students that are writing Diploma or PAT exams or have made special arrangements with their teachers are to be in the school. Bus schedules run as normal during this time.
